Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. * * * It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs; especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D. and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

NELSON LOOSES FIGHT.

Battling Nelson lost yesterday's fight in Goldfield, Nev., by fouling Joe Gans in the forty-second round of the best and longest fight seen in many years. Both men were tired when the fight ended, but Gans was apparently the stronger. He was away ahead on points and had smashed and cut Nelson all through the fight, without being severely hurt himself.

Shortly after the forty-second round began the men were in their usual clinch. Nelson had his head on Gans' shoulder and his arm down. Several times he hit Gans below the belt, apparently feeling for a vital spot. At last he drew back his right arm and hit Gains a vicious blow square in the groin. The colored boy sank to his knees and rolled over on his back. Referee Siler without hesitation ordered Nelson to his corner and awarded the fight to Gans on a foul.

Siler's decision received almost unanimous approval. The foul was so obvious that not even men who bet on Nelson could say that it could not have been committed. All though the contest Nelson had employed rough tactics, repeatedly butted Gans and had to have his head hauled away by the referee.

Referee Siler said that, while he would not say that the foul was intentional, there was no doubt that it had been committed. Nelson, he said, had employed his usual tactics all through the fight, and while he knew that Nelson was butting whenever he had an opportunity, he did not disqualify him for that because he saw that it was not hurting Gans, and because no other referee had disqualified Nelson for doing the same thing. Besides, the people were there to see the fight, and he did not want to disappoint them.

Siler was loudly cheered as he left the ring, as was Gans, who was carried to his dressing-room. Nelson and his seconds were hissed as they departed. Billy Nolan, Nelson's manager, made a disconnected statement, in which he said that Gans had promised not to claim the decision on a foul, and yet he jumped at the first opportunity to make such a claim. All Nelson would say was that Gans was tired and quit.

Gans in many ways put up a remarkable fight. His endurance surprised everyone. His work was the more wonderful when it is known that in the thirty-third round he broke his right hand. Never after did he strike a blow with it, with the exception of a few short arm jolts while clinching. He did all his work with the left hand. Gans' generalship was shown when he broke the hand. In the thirty-third round he landed a hard right-hand punch on the side of Nelson's face. A bone in the hand snapped and Gans stepped back with an expression of pain. He limped around as though he had hurt a foot, and no one realized that he had injured the right hand.

Gans said after the fight that Nelson intentionally fouled. He said he knew he could finish Nelson, as he was comparatively strong and Nelson was growing weaker all the time. Larry Sullivan announced for Gans that he would meet Nelson in two weeks in another fight, as he was sure he could whip him, and did not want to take advantage of the foul. It is hardly probable, however, that the men will meet again in that time.

Gans explained his method by saying that he did not want to box Nelson for fear of tiring himself. He found early in the game that he could protect himself in clinches, and also realized that the exertion in fighting that way was much less than if he stood back and did some showy boxing. He was hitting Nelson all the time and maneuvering to make the Dane do most of the work.

The first 15 rounds of the fight, were fast. After that the men slowed up, and only at intervals was there a rally. Although Gans was far ahead of Nelson in points and most of the time looked liked a sure winner, Nelson put up a wonderful fight on his side. The endurance and recuperative powers shown by Nelson were extraordinary. Time and again Gans would jolt him on the jaw, sending the Dane back. His knees would bend and his eyes become glazed, but he always fell into a clinch and held on, and would the come back fighting as hard as ever in his peculiar style. The minute's rest at the corner always did him good, and he would come up fresh and strong. On nearly half a dozen occassions, when it seemed another blow would put the white boy out, the gong saved him.

On several occasions Nelson apparently had the advantage. He would hit Gans as they broke from a clinch and the colored boy would hang on and wrestle.

Gans fought a remarkably clean fight. He was fair in everything, and twice when he knocked Nelson down, picked him up. One time when one of Gans' punches knocked Nelson through the ropes Gans picked him up and helped him to his feet. As the colored boy stood with his hands down waiting for Nelson to steady himself Nelson gave him a vicious blow in the stomach. Nelson was roundly hissed for this by the crowd.

The attendance was about 5,000, although estimates were made as high as 8,500. The Goldfield Athletic Club arrangements were perfect. There was not a hitch of any kind, and the fight could be seen from any portion of the arena. About 200 women were present.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 4, 1906.

THERE IS a persistent rumor in Washington that the Rockefeller banks have received a tip from the United States Treasury that the government bonds that mature next year are to be refunded. The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record-Herald gives a detailed account of how the Rockefeller banks are to profit by this prior information and says Secretary Shaw "declines to elucidate." After showing that the National City Bank is advertising to pay $1,032.50 for a $1,000 bond, he points out that while this sounds like a fine proposition, the National City Bank is not in the habit of putting out its money at less than 4 per cent a year, and that in paying 103 1-4 for the 1907 bonds, it really would make a profit of only three-quarters of 1 per cent if it held them with the expectation that they would be redeemed at maturity, nearly a year from now. Secretary Shaw, it is declared, would scarcely retire the issue in advance of maturity and pay a premium that would insure a profit above 103 1-4. Continuing the correspondent says:

As to selling the bonds to small banks wanting them for the purpose of securing government deposits, it is pointed out that to afford the National City adequate returns on its investment, cost of advertising, etc., said small banks would have to pay a premium that would make their government deposits an expensive luxury, inasmuch as they would expect to have them redeemed within less than a year at par. Therefore it is sought to cultivate the suspicion that the real purpose of the philanthropic National City Bank is to gather in $50, 000,000 or more of the bonds, knowing they are to be exchanged shortly for 2 per cents, and being in a position to make very favorable terms with the government when the refunding time comes.

As this bank is the one that demanded after the election of President McKinley that it should be given the inside track, to reward it for its liberal subscriptions to the republican campaign fund, the question that is being asked is, What has it done now to merit exclusive information and a chance to make millions, if not for liberal subscriptions to the Roosevelt campaign fund two year ago? Whatever republican administration is in power, it does not seem possible to divorce this favored corporation from the treasury of the United States.

"STEAL a dollar and the world will kick you, steal a million and the world will feel honored by being kicked by you. It is nearly always safe to be a big thief." This was the vein of Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters' sermon last Sunday morning in the Church of the Epiphany in New York, on the Philadelphia bank looting. "The Philadelphia financial disaster," Dr. Peters said, "points out that what is needed today is practical preaching. This man Hipple had been fattening on sermons about love and heaven, when he ought to have been thundered out of the church where his presence was a disgrace and a sacrilege. He was one of your strict churchmen who did not consider that the minister preached the gospel when he insisted upon honesty in business life. Hipple's conception of religion was to be exact in your formularies, but it never occurred to him that it was the Christian's duty to be true and honest and brave and pure. Preachers are giving themselves to spinning theological cobwebs and building speculative castles in the air while all that Christianity was meant to do in making the life pure and honest is left largely undone."

A RADICAL change of policy, taken, it is stated, "in deference to the present state of public opinion on such matters," was made known yesterday by the Pennsylvania Railroad, when official announcement was made that the company had disposed of approximately half of its large holdings in the Baltimore and Ohio and Norfolk & Western railroads. This action, according to the company's statement, is due to the going into effect of the new rate bill, which makes the control no longer necessary, but skeptics may be pardoned for believing that an equally potent reason for the change was the recent investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission, which was based upon a congressional resolution specifically directing the commission to inquire into the relations existing between the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore & Ohio and Norfolk & Western railroads, especially in relation to their effects on the transportation of coal and oil.

VARONA, ITALY, is just finishing the excavation of its ancient Roman theatre. The digging was begun in 1834. The theatre dates from the time of Augustus Cæsar, and was lavishly decorated with marbles from Greece, Africa and Asia. The theatre was formed of huge steps of granite, above which were rows of private boxes, one of which stands in its original position, in excellent preservation and with the name of the owner carved on it. Above the tiers of private boxes rose the places where the plebeians were seated, and from where they looked down on to the stage or away to the water jousts on the river.

Washington, Sept. 4

The Quartermaster General of the Army received a dispatch this morning from Honolulu, H. I., confirming the reports that the transport Sheridan, which is aground off the coast of Hawaii, will be a total loss. All personal and other movable property has been removed from the ill fated ship. The dispatch adds that unless a strong wind springs up from the south the vessel will probably lie in her present position without going to pieces until the arrival from San Francisco of the wrecking apparatus with which it is hoped to remove the ship's engines.

The Navy Department this morning received a telegram from the commanding officer of the cruiser Boston announcing the arrival of that ship at Bellingham Bay, Washington. The message makes no reference to the grounding of the vessel at Anacortes and the department is therefore of the opinion that the incident was not a serious one and that the ship sustained no damage.

The State Department has been asked to assist in the recovery of the $12,000 deposited in the Tangier bank by Paul O. Stensland, the defaulting Chicago bank president who was captured yesterday in Tangier, Morocco. While the officials of the State Department have little fear but that the Sultan of Morocco will make it possible for the United States government to bring Stensland back to this country notwithstanding the absence of an extradition treaty between the two countries, it is feared that it will take some time and considerable expense to recover the $12,000 which the defaulter is said to have deposited in the Tangier bank. As the Tangier bank is known to be French, and amendable to the French banking laws, it is believed that it will require a suit in the French court before possession of the money can be obtained by the Treasury Department officials. It is believed Stensland will endeavor to prevent his extradition by every possible means.

The Burns faction has won a temporard victory over the Hayes faction in the Knights of Labor split that extends back over many years. Justice Duell of the District Court of Appeals today dissolved the temporary injuction against the Simon Burns faction, which prohibited them from calling a meeting of the Knights of Labor in New York city on September 10, on the ground that an equity court has no jurisdiction. The Burns meeting in New York will therefor be held. Both factions claim control by virtue of the election of sets of officers representing each.

The express companies have called in their "franks." They have notified the holders of coupons that permit free transportation of goods that their interpretation of the new railway rate regulation law makes it unlawful to further extend the favor. There have been many thousands of the franks in Washington. Cabinet members, Senators, Congressmen and heads of government departments were among the lucky holders.

The interest bearing debt of the United States increased during the month of August from $895,159,090 to $922,133,380, or $26,974,290, which is accounted for by the recent sale of Panama canal bonds. The total debt of the United States on August 31 was $1,321,055,258.24.

Arrest of Alleged Agitators.

Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 4 —Collins Humbert, a Frenchman, and Lenardo Vilareal and Bruno Trevino, Mexicans, were arrested today at Mowry and Patagon, a mining camp where many miners are employed. The arrests were made by Immigration Inspector Murphy and Rangers Olds and Clark. It is charged the men are agitators who were attempting to organize a force of Mexican miners to attack Nogales, Sonora, and capture the custom house and the arsenal of the Rurales. Letters found on the prisoners show their plans were directed by Mexican revolutionist leaders in St. Louis. The letters also indicated that the revolutionists have organized in forty cities and that they will become active as soon as they secure arms. The alleged agitators are in jail in Nogales, Arizona.

A Mother Accidentally Killed.

A bullet from a cat rifle accidentally fired by her five-years-old son Willie yesterday afternoon struck Mrs. Walter O'Brien, of Riehls Mills, Frederick county Md., in the heart, killing her almost instantly. Mrs. O'Brien's elder son, Walter, aged about eight years, had been out with the cat rifle shooting at birds. Returning home he set the rifle down at the wood pile, where his little brother picked it up, and in examining it caused the discharge of a cartridge with which it was loaded. The bullet passed through a window of the house and struck Mrs. O'Brien, who was seated in a rocking chair in the kitchen. She screamed, and her elder son running into the kitchen, seized her as she was falling from the chair. She died in his arms. Mrs. O'Brien was about 30 years of age.

Saw His Wife.

J. Rayner Stoors Wells, formerly of New York and Newport, son of a millionaire, and a bluejacket in the United States navy, with his wife spent Sunday night at the Hotel Monticello in Norfolk. Mrs. Wells left the city early yesterday. Her husband returned to the naval station. Wells also saw his wife in Norfolk yesterday. He was taken out of the double irons in the brig of the receiving ship Franklin last week. He is said to have about decided to serve his term out in the navy and win the $500,000 which his father is said to have offered him for doing so. His wife says they don't need the money, but, after all, the Navy Department will determine whether he shall or shall not remain in the navy.

Mrs. Ella Wilson, wife of Rev. R. H. Wilson, formerally a member of the Baltimore conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, died Sunday night at Crozet. She was a prominent art teacher and for several sessions taught in the Western Female Institute at Staunton.

America scored a triumph over Germany in the first race of the series for the Roosevelt cup off Marblehead, Mass., yesterday. The American yacht Auk, won the initial contest by a large margin. Vim, of New York, was second. The third boat to cross the finish line was the German yacht Wanuessee.

Twenty houses were struck by lightning at Bristol, Tenn., yesterday during a thunderstorm of unprecedented violence and long duration. The home of Mrs. John Burnett was fired by a bolt and destroyed, Mrs. Burnett, her two children and her aged father all being stunned. They recovered consciousness just in time to escape from the burning building. The First Presbyterian Church was a target for a bolt, the steeple being hit and a portion of the spire wrecked. A heavy electric chandelier in the main auditorium of the edifice was torn from its hangings and smashed into bits.

Embraced as They Drowned.

Locked in each other's arms in death, the bodies of a young man and a young woman lay at the bottom of the Prospect Park lake, Brooklyn, for two hours Tuesday night. Within a month they were to have been married. Hundreds in carriages, automobiles and afoot had seen them go down to their death, while the brother of the man and another girl, upset while rowing with them, had escaped a like fate by the narrowest of margins.

Turning to each other as they realized their last moments of life had come, the two sank to the bottom.

Among the crowds who thronged to the Brooklyn park were Miss Sara Levine, 18 years old, of Jersey City; Herman Ruden, of New York, to whom she was engaged; William Ruden, 20 years old, and Miss Rose Folk of New York, to whom William was engaged. William Ruden and Miss Folk were drowned.

In October there was to have been a double wedding of the two brothers to the girls. They were spending Sunday together, and after watching the crowds at play in the park and on the lake they hired a rowboat about 7 o'clock and rowed the length of Prospect Park's little sheet of water. They were passing among the three little islands which are called the Three Sisters when the two girls, who had been sitting in the stern seat of the boat, found it uncomfortable there. Miss Folk decided to change her seat to the forward thwart of the boat, where she would be near her fiance, William Ruden. The men were rowing. In attempting to make the change the boat was rocked violently and a misstep of the girl who was making her way forward completley over balanced it. In an instant the rowboat had turned turtle, and the four in it were in the water. None of the four could swim, and when the boat upset William Ruden and Miss Folk, coming to the surface near together, but far from the boat, were helpless. They were too far from the boat to grasp it and they thought only of each other. Floundering toward each other they clung together as both sank again. They never returned to the surface until their bodies were drawn up an hour later.

Strikebreakers Use Pistols.

A dispatch from Hazen, Nev., says that trouble occurred Sunday at the junction of the Southern Pacific and Goldfield and Tonapah Railroads, when the second section of a train carrying strikebreakers for the street car lines in San Francisco arrived. A number of union miners met the train and hooted the strikebreakers. A stone was thrown through a car window, and it was answered by a shot. A number of the men on the train jumped off. The conductor gave the signal to go ahead, but the strikebreakers stopped the train and delayed it 30 minutes. A hundred or more dismounted and, brandishing revolvers, hurled defiance at the union men. Fifty or more delegates to the republican State convention at Tonapah and a crowd on the way to the Goldfield prize-fight took to the sagebush.

When the train was finally started a crowd with revolvers stood on the rear platform. As they passed several miners the latter hurled stones at them. Fully 50 shots were fired from the train. One hat was struck, but no one was hurt. Not a shot was fired by the miners, who were the only ones left about the station, except employes, when the strikebreakers alighted

Six Couples Married.

Cupid had a busy day in Washington yesterday. Early in the morning a party of excursionists from Virginia landed there. The little god had been active, and six couples straightway made for the courthouse to get marriage licenses. They found the courthouse closed on account of Labor Day, and grief marked them for its own until a watchman told them where Assistant Clerk of the Court Frank Smith lived. Thither the six pairs of lovers wandered hand in hand. To him they told their tale, and his heart softened with tender sentiment as he listened. He went to the courthouse with them and issued the six marriage licenses, then he told them that nearby lived the Rev. James B. McLaughlin, who set them in line, and so they were married, two at a time, until all were happy.

Charged with Perjury.

As a sequel to the horsewhipping of Justice of the Peace Henning at Vienna, last Wednesday by Miss Lucy Grove, on the alleged grounds that the justice had decided against her in a case in which she had charged Eugene Hall with attempted assault, Miss Grove was arrested Saturday on a warrant sworn out by Hall charging her with perjury. Miss Grove was taken before Justice of the Peace Phillips at Fairfax yesterday and the hearing was continued until Tuesday, September 11, owing to the absence of two important witnesses. Attorneys Walter T. Oliver and R. E. Thornton, represented Miss Grove, and Attorneys T. R Keith and Robert G. Mattingly appeared for Hall. The charge against Miss Grove is that she knowingly testified falsely when she swore that Hall had attempted to assault her in a blackberry patch on the afternoon of July 4 and that through fear of Hall she had spent the night of July 26 wandering around the fields. Because of the great interest exhibited in the case, the electric railway running into Fairfax was crowded to its utmost capacity in the afternoon. From Vienna, Wedderburn and other stations large numbers boarded the train for Fairfax to attend the trial, which is said to be an outgrowth of the assault on Squire Henning.

Heavy Rainfall.

The month of August, 1906, will be long remembered because of the amount of rainfall. Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau at Washington, has issued a summary of the weather for the month. It shows that only five of the thirty-one days were clear, rain fell on sixteen days, and twenty-six days were cloudy or partly so. Hail fell August 2, and thunderstorms occurred on August 2, 3, 6, 7, 10, 12, 20, 21, 24, 27 and 30.

The highest temperature was 94 degrees, August 6, and the lowest was 62, August 28. The mean temperature for the month was 76 degrees, or one degree higher than the average for thirty-six years. The total rainfall for the month was 14.36 inches, and the greatest fall in twenty-four hours was 5.28 inches, on August 24.

The excess of rainfall for the month, as compared with the average for the past thirty-six years, was about ten inches.

Conditions In Cuba.

Havana, Sept. 4.—Pino Guerra's insurgent army is again in motion, and this time, it is asserted, Guerra plans to sweep the entire north coast of Pinar del Rio province before ending his march. His purpose is to seek recruits, and it is admitted that if he is able to make such a march unhindered by the government forces his army will be strengthened.

In the face of Guerra's fresh activity the loyalists on the other hand are showing a marked willingness to get away from the immediate vicinity of the insurgent army instead of rushing to battle. Guerra's army at present is at Mantua, fifteen miles northwest of Guane, Pinar del Rio province. Colonel Avalos, who was sent from San Juan de Martinez toward Guane to engage Guerra, has left Guane and fallen back toward San Juan. This movement has caused the greatest surprise. Avalos explains that provisions were running short in Guane and that telegraphic communication with San Juan had been interrupted, so that he was forced to move backward instead of forward.

A new element has been injected into the revolution through the offer of General Menocal, who is regarded as the favorite of liberals for President, to co-operate with other veterans in arbitrating the differences which led to the uprising. President Palma, however, declines to arbitrate.

The financial side of the problem facing the government is beginning to attract a great deal of attention, and nearly all the newspapers devote space to discussing the country's financial standing and pointing out that the strain of war expenses cannot be borne long.

Havana, Sept. 4.—An important engagement on a larger scale than any of the previous fights between the loyal forces and insurgents, is reported to be in progress at Cumanayagia, near Cienfuegos. Fighting is said to have continued for two days.

So far, the insurgents, who outnumbered the loyal forces, have had the better of the fighting. Col. Valle, commander of the loyalists is said to be in a disadvantageous position.

Reinforcements have been dispatched to his assistance from Cienfuegos. Heavy losses are reported to have occurred on both sides.

Col. Valle left Cienfuegos three days ago to attack Col. Guzman, the chief insurgent leader in Santa Clara province.

Yesterday Valle encountered a band of insurgents under Major Postela, Guzman's chief lieutenant. The two forces came together near the bridge over the Arimao river, southeast of Cienfuegos. While this battle was in progress Col. Guzman came up with his main force. The fighting became general, both sides losing heavily.

Late reports received here state that Col. Valle still holds a position near the river bridge, but is in great danger.

Reinforcements have been hurried to his assistance from Cienfuegos.

Col Valle's force numbered 300, and the insurgent army was between 1,000 and 1,500 strong.

Believes Bryan will be Elected.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 4.—In the opinion of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, William Jennings Bryan's stand on government ownership of railroads makes certain that President Roosevelt will be the republican nominee in 1908 for the presidency. "Bryan's declaration of principles means two things," said the Mayor on his return from New York, today—"the nomination of Roosevelt and the driving of thousands of democrats out of the party. To all such democrats, I say, 'God speed him,' for every one that leaves ten men of other parties stand ready to take his place. Roosevelt will be nominated. Bryan will be nominated. Bryan will defeat Roosevelt. That is my firm belief. Every republican who is a protectionist in principle believes in government ownership. The farmers will be solidly in favor of it, and so will every small shipper. They know the evils of private ownership and freight rate discriminations. Government ownership of railroads is as strong with the people of the United States today as is municipal ownership with the people of Cleveland and Chicago. It is the question before the American people, the paramount issue. With it Bryan will sweep the country, I believe. But whether he does or not, he is right. Government ownership of railroads is right. It is the right, and right and truth will prevail. Further, it is a great moral question. Steam railways claim they are forced to buy legislatures. Street railways claim they are forced to buy councils. What is there left for the people to do? They cannot regulate the conditions which make possible 'necessary,' as monoply claims, the debauching of public officials. Therefore, they must destroy these conditions, and they will."

Fleet Dissolved.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 4 —The big fleet of war vessels which yesterday passed in view of President Roosevelt, amid the greatest naval spectacle this country has ever seen, is dissolving today. Heading to the eastward at dawn were the cruisers Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland and Colorado in orders that meant a change of base. Much speculation has been caused by the orders which sent these four armored cruisers to the far East, where they will presumably take up the stations of the battleships now in Asia. These latter battleships will probably return to this country. This division is under the command of Rear Admiral Brownson and is scheduled to reach Gibraltar on September 20.

Shortly before six o'clock today a fluttering code flag inched up the signal halyards of the battleship Maine, the flagship of Admiral Evans. It was the signal to depart. One by one the warships slowly steamed away to the eastward where they were soon lost in the haze.

"I feel assured that Mr. Roosevelt and the American people are pleased with the United States navy, for what was seen here yesterday must certainly stimulate interest and pride in the fighting force on sea," said Admiral Evans today. "There shall be more of these reviews to show the people that the navy is a real thing, and something to be depended upon when war times come."

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our little life things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A hastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodal For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Mr. Bryan in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 4 —William J Bryan arrived in this city at 8.15 a. m today over the Grand Trunk Railway from Detroit. He was met by committees from the Jefferson and Iroquois clubs when he left the train, and was escorted to the auditorium annex by the committee in autombiles. The crowd present was small, owing to the early hour and lack of information. Until noon the distinguished guest will meet with his family. At 2 o'clock a committee from the Iroquois Club will escort him to the club, where an informal reception to be followed by a luncheon will be held. The Iroquois luncheon will be served for 175 guests and no formal speeches are to be made. Mayor Dunne, President Eckhart and Mr. Bryan will make short talks at the luncheon and the reception is expected to be concluded before 3 o'clock, after which Bryan will return to his hotel and remain until time for the great event of the day, the banquet under the auspices of the Jefferson Club at the Auditorium tonight.

Roger Sullivan, democratic national committeeman against who Bryan aimed an ultimatum, was not at the reception. Judge Thompson, Sullivan's political enemy, took a prominent part in the proceedings at the hotel, which was surrounded with a big crowd of politicians from all parts of the country. At noon Bryan was escorted to the Iroquois club, where he partook of luncheon and addressed 300 members and guests.

Husband a Negro.

Leesburg, Ga., Sept. 4—Six months ago Miss Eva Green, one of the prettiest girls of this place and daughter of a prominent family, was wedded to A. T. Wilson, after a brief courtship. One week ago she learned that the husband had negro ancestors. The girl informed her parents of her discovery, and the husbands, knowing that his wife's proud relatives would kill him, fled. On petition of the girl's relatives Governor Terrell to day offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of Wilson. The girl's relatives made no secret of their purpose to lynch Wilson if they can find him The girl is prostrated, and is being watched to prevent her committing suicide.

Wilson had been here only two months when he married Miss Green. He had plenty of money, dressed well and announced that he intended to make investments here. He was a bit dark, but no one suspected that he was not a white man. He met Miss Green soon after his arrival, and paid her assiduous court, and their marriage followed. The pair took a long bridal trip, and upon returning occupied a handsome home. They entertained a good deal, and Mrs. Wilson seemed to be very fond of her husband. It is said that Wilson himself told his wife that he had negro blood in his veins, believing that her love for him was so great that she would not care.

Father Martin's Successor.

Rome, Sept. 4 —Delegates from the Jesuit Order throughout the world who are assembled at the German College for the purpose of selecting a general of the Society of Jesus, in succession to Father Martin, deceased, took a number of ballots today, but so far without result. The Pope it is stated, is using his influence for the elevation of Father Freddi, an Italian, to the office, but it is understood that a number of the delegates are holding out for the selection of some one other than an Italian. The belief is growing in some quarters that the chances of Father Rudolph Meyer, of St Louis, Mo., becoming the head of the order are considerably brighter. As a result of the deadlock, it is not expected that a new general will be chosen before the end of the present week.

The Late Herman Oelrichs.

New York, Sept. 4.—The body of Herman Oelrichs the former steamship manager and noted athlete, who died suddenly last Saturday aboard ship en route here, arrived today on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The steamship was met down the bay by Mrs. Oelrichs, Charles M. Oelrichs and William K. Vanderbilt who boarded the ship from the tug. The funeral of Mr. Oelrichs will be held Wednesday at the Oelrichs home here. It will be private. Charles Oelrichs, said this morning that his brother had long been a sufferer from liver trouble, and that his trip abroad was for his health.

Trepoff's Successor.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 4 —General Trepoff, commandant of the palace, is to be succeeded by Lieutenant General Baron Kleigels, according to a report current today. Last week it was reported that General Trepoff had suffered a nervous collapse. Baron Kleigels is a believer in the same methods of dealing with revolutionists as those employed by Trepoff. As prefect of St. Petersburg and Governor of Kieff, Kleigels was responsible for cruel reprisals against revolutionaries and made himself one of the best hated men in Russia.

Fishing Smack Seized by Mexicans.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 4.—A Mexican gunboat has seized the American fishing smack Aloha, and thrown her crew of fourteen men in prison for violation of fishing treaties. The Mexicans have confiscated the smack and one half of her cargo. The Aloha, which belonged to the Gulf Fisheries Company, is the third boat of the company taken by the Mexicans. The seizure was made in Aransas Reet in the Campeachy Gulf, where the Aloha had put in to escape a storm.

Floods in India.

Lahore, India., Sept. 4.—Disastrous floods have occurred in the Bohar district in the basin of the Ganges, and as a rerult an enormous amount of damage has been caused. Crops have been destroyed over an area of several miles and a number of villages have been obliterated. The county for miles about resembles an open sea. The inhabitants of the region who have lost everything are on the verge of rioting.

Suicide of a Virginian.

Halifax, N. S, Sept. 4.—A man registered at a hotel here six weeks ago as "W. E Jaws, Richmond, Va." committed suicide today by blowing his brains out. He was about 36 years old. Financial embarrassment is given as the reason for the man taking his life.

J. Manchester Haines, ice magnate, lumber operator, and financier, died at Portland, Me., today after a long illness, from a complication of diseases. He was 67 years old. Mr Haines had been President of the Maine State, Speaker of the House of Representatives and a member of the national republican committe. He was reputed to be a millionaire.

Bars and Stripes Said to Await Them.

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—Prison bars and stripes loom up before the eyes of three men, said to be criminally liable for the wrecking of the Real Estate Trust Company. "You may say there is evidence of criminality in connection with the collapse of the Trust Company, and that arrests will be made," said District Attorney Bell today after he and his assistants had concluded an investigation into the concern's failure. While the trust funds, with two or three exceptions, are intact, the deposits placed with the company have been looted. I can lay my hands on the looters, and will make the case against them as perfect as possible."

Hearst in New Role.

Binghampton, N. Y., Sept. 4.—A new role has been picked out for Wm. R Hearst by the State Prohibition Convention which assembled here today. The new pose is that of the slayer of the demon rum. A number of the delegates are making an open fight to throw the gubernatorial combination of the Adams ale party to Hearst. His supporters say that they have assurances that if enforced the Independent League will fight the liquor interests. His opponents, on the other hand, argue that Hearst would be more apt to advocate the municipal ownership of rum shops.

Young Woman Drowned.

Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 4.—While bathing in a rough surf at Bradley Beach, this afternoon Miss Frances Wadsworth, of Newark, N. J., was drowned. Her companion in the water, Miss Hollingsworth, of Brooklyn was saved by two boys on the beach who brought her ashore.

Miss Wadsworth's body was found in the surf. Efforts to resuscitate the young woman were futile, although the doctor's worked over her for an hour.

Fighting in Panama.

Panama, Sept. 4 —Fighting occurred today in the streets of the city between the followers of Vice President Obaldia and Senor Guardia, rival candidates for the vice presidency. The police, instead of trying to quell the outbreak, took sides, some fighting for the other candidate. Feeling is at fever heat, and the situation is serious. One Congressman was shot down on the steps of the American bank, and several persons were wounded.

Receipts at the Fight.

Goldfield, Nev., Sept. 4.—President Rickart, of the Athletic club, states that the receipts for the fight amounted approximately to $78,000, and that the number of spectators at the ringside aggregated 7,000. This is the greatest amount of money taken in for a prize-fight in the history of the ring.

Young Roosevelt at the Fight.

Goldfield, Nev., Sept. 4.—A young man said to be Theodore Roosevelt, jr., son of the President, was a spectator at the Nelson fight. Announcer Sullivan declared that President Roosevelt had failed to answer a telegraphic invitation to be present, but that Teddy jr., was at the ring side. Both the scrappers got applause from the young man when they made their appearance, and his eyes did not leave them for a moment when they were mixing it.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 4.—Following the strong tone and sharp advances in London the market here, after making heavy gains on first sales, continued strong during the first hour. The news of the sale of part of the Pennsylvania holdings in Baltimore & Ohio and Norfolk & Western was considered significant of the coming readjustment of the relations of the great railroad systems and announcement of other changes of an important character are expected at frequent intervals from now on. The market at the close of the first hour was barely steady.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Prompt action in arresting 150 Filipinos said to have been implicated in a conspiracy in Luzon, has resulted in suppressing an incipient uprising.

George Senithka, aged 28, was smothered to death in a fire which started in the home of Joseph Sidma, Upper Lehigh, Pa., last night. John Sidma, a boy, was rescued in an unconscious condition but revived later.

President Roosevelt will close his summer vacation at Oyster Bay, N. Y., on October 1, when he will leave Sagamore Hill, for Washington. The President will make speeches in Harrisburg, and York, three days later.

The lightweight fight in last night's bout in Butte, Mont., between Twin Sullivan and Jack Dougherty was won by Sullivan in the 19th round in a knockout. It was Sullivan's fight.

For this section fair and cooler tonight. Wednesday fair; light northerly winds.

Death of Mr. Hooe.

Mr. John D. Hooe shot himself while alone in his "den" at his country home near Warrenton yesterday afternoon. Mystery surrounds his death. No motive has been found for suicide, and, although many believe he purposely ended his life, others incline to the belief that the bullet was fired accidently.

The first word of the tragedy was brought to Warrenton by a man who galloped into town with the news. This messenger was followed in a few moments by Mr. Hooe's stableman, who confirmed the statement.

The stableman said he was working in the stable yard when he heard a pistol shot. Knowing that Mr. Hooe was in his "den" smoking, he rushed there. He found his employer already dead, with a bullet wound over the heart. The stableman then hurried into town.

So far as is known, no one else was in the house at the time the shot was fired and no theory has been advanced as to the cause of the shooting or how it was done. Mrs. Hooe was driving at the time with Mrs. Henry Daingefield, formerly of this city. She was summoned home by a message that her husband was very ill. Mr Hooe was thirty-eight years old, and lived on his place on the outskirts of Warrenton since he purchased it some years ago. He was well known throughout Virginia and had many friends in this city, his former home, who were shocked to learn of his death. He was a member of the Hunt Club, a director of the horse show, and interested in horses and very popular among his associates. He was always a very temperate man. Mr. Hooe was in Warrenton yesterday morning, chatting good naturedly with his associates, and nothing despondent was noticed in his manner.

Mr. Hooe was a son of the late Capt. Philip B Hooe, who was for many years one of the most prominent merchants in this city, and a grandson of the late John B Daingerfield, during his lifetime one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Alexandria.

In his youth he attended successively the Episcopal High School, near this city, Hanover Academy, the Virginia Military Institute and the University of Virginia. After leaving the last named institution he entered the medical school of the University of Maryland, but was compelled to abandon his studies by reason of a serious attack of illness.

About fifteen years ago Mr. Hooe married Miss May Herbert, daughter of Colonel Arthur Herbert, of the banking firm of Burke & Herbert, of Alexandria. She survives him. They had one child, who died about ten years ago. About eight years ago Mr. and Mrs. Hooe moved to Warrenton, where he became prominent in social and hunt circles. Mr. Hooe was considered one of the best heavy-weight riders in Virginia, and at the time of his death maintained a small stable of high-class hunters for his personal use.

Mr. C. W. Wattles, the agent in this city of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Line, and a friend of Mr. Hooe, received a telegram from him yesterday morning in reference to a shipment of horses to Norfolk on this evening's boat. This would indicate that Mr. Hooe at that time had no idea of self-destruction.

Mr. Hooe's friends here think he, either in a moment of despondency killed himself or that he accidentally shot himself with the pistol while carelessly handling the weapon. They say he was known for his careless handling of firearms.

His father-in-law, Col. Herbert, left here this morning for Warrenton and will bring the remains of Mr. Hooe back to this city for interment.

The funeral will take place from St. Paul's Church tomorrow evening at 3:30 o'clock and the remains will be interred in the family lot in Christ Church cemetery.

The Boat Race.

As stated in the Gazette of that date, the Old Dominion Boat Club yesterday lost the race in the Middle States Regatta at Georgetown in the senior four oared event. In describing the race a Washington paper says:

"There was no lingering sting of bitterness. Winners and losers alike were applauded and many of the beaten oarsmen were deserving of great credit.

"This was particularly so in the case of the Old Dominion Club in the senior four oared race. The members of this crew—Charles D. Barrett, James S. Douglas, jr., Edward Fawcett and Arthur Herbert, jr.—are all residents of Alexandria. They are in the junior class of oarsmen, but entered as seniors. Luck seemed to be against them from the outset. Hardly had they begun to train for the race, less than two weeks ago, when one of their number was taken sick, and he rowed yesterday when physically unfit. Even with this handicap they made an excellent showing and were right up in the thick of the fight until after the bridge had been passed. They would probably have been one of the contenders, but just as they began to make their spurt in the last quarter, while lying in third place, the fin of their boat became useless, and the crew found themselves pulling all over the course. They had difficulty keeping out of the way of the other boats and were lucky to keep from fouling. They rowed a good, game race, which was observed by the members of the other crews, and the winners, the Ottawa Rowing Club, paid them a pretty compliment when, after the race, they went up and pinned the emblems of victory on the Virginians."

To Be Towed to Washington.

After being sunk while bound from Baltimore to Washington and presumably abandoned, the old side wheel steamer Samuel J. Pentz will make another effort to reach the capital city. Her owner, Mr. J. Heath, of Washington, had her raised by the Baltimore Wrecking Company and taken from her muddy bed near Wagner's Point to off River View, near Baltimore. It is thought she will be in condition to start for Washington on Thursday in tow of the tug Wm. H. Yerkes, jr.

No business was transacted in the Circuit today.

R. E. Lee Camp.

A meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night. Commander W. H. May presiding.

An invitation from the Neff-Rice Camp, Confederate Veterans, of Newmarket, Va., to attend a reunion and picnic to be held near that place September 7th, was received.

The committees appointed at a previous meeting to prepare resolutions in respect to the memory of Comrades Frank Hume and N. Dawson made their reports, which were adopted and copies ordered to be spread upon the minutes of the camp and sent to the families of the deceased.

The adjutant was directed to tender the thanks of the camp to General G. W. C Lee for the gift of General R E Lee's camp chair. The gift is highly prized by the camp and it with other valuable relics of the war in their possession will be properly placed and cared for.

Delegates to the grand camp, which will meet in Roanoke the latter part of October, will be elected at the next meeting.

Investigating Murder.

Commonwealth's Attorney Crandal Mackey, of Alexandria county, stated yesterday that Annie Green, the colored woman detained in connection with the murder of Jackson Boney, whose dead body was found in a buggy on the Long Bridge about two weeks ago, will be taken before E F. Thompson, justice of the peace, at the Alexandria county court house to-day. During the past few days, it is said by the state's attorney, much new and valuable evidence has been discovered. The county authorities state that they have recently discovered evidence to show that Annie Green had been out with Boney at different times on rides and excursions, and that she had knowledge that he had recently come into possession of $1,600. Further evidence has been found, it is stated by the Virginia authorities, to indicate that Annie Green and Boney were having trouble in the buggy while they were driving along the road. It is asserted that the witness referred to states that there was blood on Boney's face at that time.

Funerals.

The funeral of Mrs. Wilhelmina Furrer, mother of Mrs. C. Bohrens, who died Sunday afternoon, took place from the residence, 111 south Columbus street, this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. John May, and the pallbearers were Messrs. Carl, Fred and Jacob Muellar, John Graff and Carl Graff and Max Walfesteiner, all of Washington, and nephews of the deceased. The interment was in Bethel Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Gertrude Nash took place from St. Mary's Church this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly. The pallbearers were William Moore, Ernest Deahl, Rudolph Norris, Harry Quinn, Edward J. Fleming and Mr. Piper. The interment was in Bethel cemetery.

Alexandria County Day.

Tomorrow will be Alexandria County Day at Luna Park, and an interesting time is anticipated. A percentage of the receipts will be devoted toward the purchase of libraries for the public schools of the county. An attractive programme has been arranged for the occasion. A number of new features have been added to those already in operation at the park, and it is one of the most interesting places in this section in which to spend an evening.

Lady Maccabees

The Lady Maccabees spent a very pleasant evening last night at the rural home of Mrs. Chas. Shaffer. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, while the soft light of the Japanese lanterns enhanced the beauty out of doors. Cream, ices and cakes were bountifully served and each guest was the recipient of a bouquet of flowers.

Moonlight Excursion.

The steamer Jamestown will make a moonlight excursion next Friday night for the benefit of the improvement fund of the parsonage of St. Mary's Church of this city. The boat will leave the Prince street wharf at 7:30 o'clock on that evening. A pleasant time is assured all who may patronize the excursion.

Sentenced to Jail

The case of Frank Jackson, colored, who was arrested recently on the charge of stealing $25 from the fruit store of Mantis Bros, on King street, near Pitt, came up in the Police Court this morning. Justice Caton sent him to jail for 30 days. Jackson was represented by Mr. L. H. Machen.

Death of Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Rose Moore, wife of Mr. Joseph E. Moore, died at her home on east Duke street early last night of typhoid fever. The deceased was a daughter of Joseph Dreifus and a granddaughter of Mr. Julius Dreifus. She was a popular young woman among her many friends and acquaintances.

Torture By Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman of Cushing, Me., "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggist. Price 50c.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 4, 1906.

The Zionist Conference.

The annual Zionist conference was held at Cologne from August 28 to August 31. The report of the executive committee states that the conference decided to carry out loyally the discussion of the last congress; namely, the settlement of the Jewish question by creating a public legal home settlement in Palestine and the surrounding countries for the Jewish nation.

All suggestions of other territories were rejected. The political relations established by the late Dr. Herzl have been increased and the great powers influenced to exchange views on the Zionist question.

Regarding the attitude of the conference toward the territorialists under Israel Zangwill, of England, the opinion prevailed that co-operation was impossible, but as it was only a philanthropic movement combative measures would be out of place.

The Jewish Colonial Bank reported that a portion of its profits had been spent in supporting victims of Russian pogroms and that the remaining $18,500 had been placed to the credit of the reserve fund. The capital of the territorial fund, which is destined for the acquisition of territory in Palestine and the neighboring countries, exceeds $875,000.

An amendment offered by Dr. Rodenheimer to legalize the general funds and form a company in accordance with English law was accepted by a large majority.

Professor Warburg reported for the Palestine committee, which investigated the possibility of colonization there. The report closes with mentioning the proposed opening of survey departments for the Palestine Agricultural School and various other institutes in different towns of Europe.
